New York Stock Market.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Speculation in the stock exchange was dull again today and was confined almost entirely to room traders. Only 152,000 shares changed hands and of this total 60,000 were Reading and 13,000 unlisted stocks. After Reading the most active stock was St. Paul, which figured for only 10-00 shares. A sharp recovery in sterling exchange put an end to the talk of gold imports and this had an adverse influence. As the market was advanced yesterday on the talk about probable easy importations of gold, the announcement that Secretary Carlisle had ordered prepayment of July interest on the public debt beginning on Monday next, had little or no effect. The failure of the Reading plan of readjustment, the cutting of rates by Great Northern Railroad Company, bank failures in California and a heavy demand from that State for currency tended to weaken the list. Declines up to a late hour were comparatively small, but when money jumped from 7 to 12 to 15 per cent the bears succeeded in making some impression on prices. Reading dropped 2 1/2 to 13 1/2. National Cordage 3 to 12 1/2. General Electric 2 to 71 and Manhattan 2 1/2 to 28 1/2. Lackawanna, after rising from 45 1/2 to 147 1/2, dropped to 145 and closed at 145 1/2. Distillers rose 1 1/2 to 24 and later lost most of the improvement. American Tobacco broke 4 to 57, rose to 50 1/2 and reacted to 57. Rumors were current that the company would defer the payment of the dividend. Toward the close Lake Shore rose 1, and other leading shares rallied 1/2 to 1 per cent. The market left off firmer in tone. New York treasury balances: Coin, $63,682,000; currency, $18,676,000.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Money on call active, ranging from 6 to 15, closing offered at 8. Prime mercantile paper, 60 days, 4 1/2 to 4 3/4. Commercial bills, 60 days, 4 1/2 to 4 3/4. Government bonds steady. State bonds dull. Railroad bonds lower.

Financial Failures Yesterday
POMONA, Cal., June 22.—The People's Bank did not open this morning. This notice was on the door: "Owing to the existing financial stringency the board of directors of this bank have decided to temporarily close its doors. Depositors will be paid in full."

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 22.—B. T. Rhea & Son, grain dealers, assigned for the benefit of their creditors to-day. Liabilities $100,000, with about equal assets. Local banks are the largest creditors.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The Post announces the failure of Henry Sheldon & Co., the well known tea and coffee firm. They are highly rated in the commercial agencies and have resources between $200,000 and $300,000.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 21.—There was a run on the First National Bank, the strongest financial institution of this city, to-day, caused by idle gossip connected with the failure of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company to pay its employees last Saturday. It was checked, however, without damage being done.

SPINNING WHEELS.

The Bicycle Races at Melrose Park To-day Promise to be Very Fast.
The races of the Virginia Wheel Club at Melrose Park, beginning this afternoon at 3 o'clock, will be a notable success. The occasion will be enlivened by the entry of several crack wheelmen from Washington and elsewhere. The events and prizes have been published before. The entries for to-day are as follows:

1. Half-mile novice (club)—J. S. Hoffman (17), R. F. Taylor (3), J. P. Flippo (7), J. R. Plumley (8), Geo. L. Hart (11), Will M. Shaar (16).
2. Half-mile novice (open)—E. S. Wortham (2), Wm. Haymaker (19), Chas. Lyle (20), C. L. Palmer (22).
3. Half-mile (open)—Chas. R. Evans (2), W. H. Wynne (4), J. T. Hunter (6), J. R. Plumley (8), J. W. Hancock (9), W. T. Robertson (21), C. L. Palmer (22).
4. Slow race, 100 yards—W. A. Wynne (4), J. T. Hunter (6), J. P. Flippo (7), Jno. Moore (9), Lee M. Ephraim (15), Harry Wood (17), W. T. Robertson (21), C. L. Palmer (22), Will M. Shaar (16).
5. One mile (open)—W. A. Wynne (4), E. S. Wortham (2), J. T. Hunter (6), J. R. Plumley (8), W. T. Robertson (21), C. L. Palmer (22).
6. Virginia Division L. A. W. championship, half mile—J. S. Hoffman (1), Chas. R. Evans (2), R. F. Taylor (3), J. P. Flippo (7), J. W. Hancock (9), Geo. L. Hart (11).
7. Two-mile lap race (open)—J. S. Hoffman (1), W. A. Wynne (4), J. T. Hunter (6), J. R. Plumley (8), J. W. Hancock (9), Geo. L. Hart (11), W. M. Shaar (16), W. T. Robertson (21), C. L. Palmer (22).
8. Half mile ordinary—Jno. Moore (9), Harry Wood (17).

W. T. Robertson, C. L. Palmer and J. T. Hunter are three Washington cracks. Palmer has no track record and will ride in the novice race. Robertson and Palmer have excellent road records, the former having made his century in 8:02 and the latter in 8:30. After the races are over they will start from Salem and ride the turnpike to Hagerstown for the twenty-four hour record and expect to make it a distance. They will leave Salem at daybreak and with brief stops for meals will ride straight through without rest until the twenty-four hours are up. They will be no less than twenty-two hours in the saddle. Robertson rides a wheel of his own make. They ride against the record of W. H. Ward of 200 1/2 miles made on the 15th instant.

Will Wynne will do some fancy riding in front of Hotel Roanoke this morning at 10 o'clock. The cars will leave the Terry building for the bicycle races this and Saturday afternoons as follows: 12:05, 12:35, 1:05, 1:30, 1:50, 2:10, 2:35, 2:40, 3:20, 3:40, 4:05, 4:10, 4:30, 4:50, 5:10, 5:35, 6:05. The dummy will leave its usual terminus at Shenandoah avenue and Commerce street ten minutes later than above schedule.

WOMAN'S WORLD IN PARAGRAPHS.

A Kind of Man That Young Ladies Should Not Worry About.

"Do young men think less of girls who work or more of those who do not?" A leading New York newspaper has offered a prize for the best answers to this question from a man and a woman. The idea was started by a young woman who wrote to the paper saying she knew several working girls who would not let their male friends know what they were doing. My dear girl, don't spend five minutes harrowing yourself up over a question of this kind. Any young man from whom you must disguise the fact that you are honest, brave and industrious enough to earn your own living is just the sort of man that you don't want to be on speaking terms with. I think I'd climb a fence to get away from that kind of a man. There's something radically wrong with his heart or his head or both.

Woman suffrage bills are cropping out all over the country. The Ontario legislature has just defeated one by a vote of 57 to 16. There's nothing like keeping it at.

An unusual grist of "Arabian Nights" tales of women who are making fabulous wealth in literature are just now going the rounds. Not one in a hundred are true. But that wouldn't matter so much if they did not do a vast deal of harm by firing the ambition of those who could earn better livings at something else. If the love of writing, like virtue, is its own reward, go ahead, but let no woman, except she possesses great and exceptional talent, expect to get rich at it.

Sir Edwin Arnold is credited with having said that if he were at liberty to choose his sex and country he would be an American woman. He must be the first man who ever wished he was a woman. If he isn't, it would be interesting to know who the other one is. But certainly he is right about the proud position of the American as compared with other women. Right here it would be well for all women to remember that said proud position was not gained by sitting down and letting men arrange it for them. Every new advantage that she enjoys today was obtained through the grit and courage of some other woman. The men, bless their hearts, don't mean to be hard hearted and tyrannical, but how are they to know what a woman wants unless she lets her needs be known? "If you don't see what you want, ask for it."

The blackballing of Lotta in New York's most famous woman's club, Sorosis, has caused a large sensation in literary and artistic circles. What a pity it is that club members cannot remember their initiation vows and keep silent upon these matters. But women are no worse than men, as witness the case of Mr. Seligman's rejection from the Union League club. Miss Lotta Crabtree, who is a bright, sensible, talented woman, against whose character there has never been a breath of reproach, and who is withal a very wealthy woman, has come out of the ordeal with flying colors and added dignity. Her calm acceptance of the situation, with the remark that she felt complimented that 210 of such brilliant, brainy women should have voted for her while only 7 voted against her, puts her in a much more dignified light than the narrow minority who dropped in the blackballs. The affair has done much more harm to Sorosis than it has to Miss Lotta.

General Booth says "women are the best rulers" and has named his daughter instead of either of his sons as his successor in command of the Salvation Army.

Mr. Arthur Balfour has frequently said that his most valuable political advice comes from his sister and housekeeper, Miss Agnes Balfour. Mr. Balfour is a gentleman to admit it.

The newest thing is a detective agency for the shadowing of prospective bridegrooms. Just picture the feelings of George if he should discover that his photograph which he imagines is being worn next to Gladys' heart, or at least in a silver frame on her dressing table, is instead walking around in a detective's pocket. This is actually wringing the last drop of sentiment out of the wooing. Still women, especially those without male relatives, can know very little of the life of a man outside of their own drawing rooms. They are continually being deceived, and why should they not put themselves in possession of the facts as a necessary precaution?

A well known physician has said that catarrh is a very rare disease among Quakeresses, and he attributes this to the fact that the Quaker bonnet protects the back of the head and neck from the cold. If this is true, the idea deserves careful consideration. Why could not some pretty headgear be invented that would protect this sensitive portion of the anatomy? But if it didn't bristle and perk itself up in the aggressively coquettish way necessary to keep pace with the sleeves and exaggerated frills of the present corsage it would be dropped immediately. Almost any woman would rather have the catarrh than an unfashionable bonnet. ALICE E. IVES.

Jellied Veal.

A knuckle of veal, 2 onions, a blade of mace, a bay leaf, a gill of good vinegar, 12 whole cloves, 6 peppercorns, a half teaspoonful of ground allspice, salt and pepper to taste. Wipe the knuckle and cut it into pieces. Put it into a kettle with 2 quarts of cold water. Bring it slowly to simmering point. Skim and simmer gently for two hours, then add the onion, mace, bay leaf, cloves, peppercorns and allspice and simmer one hour longer. Take out the knuckle, carefully remove the bones and put the meat into a square mold. Boil the liquor until reduced to one quart. Strain, add the vinegar, salt and pepper to taste, pour it over the meat and stand it away overnight to cool. When cold, turn it carefully out of the mold, garnish it with parsley and lemon, and it is ready to serve.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

Violators of the Law Will be Summarily Punished.

The attention of the public is respectfully called to the following extract from acts of assembly of Virginia, 1892, chapter 544, paragraph 3,796, approved March 1, 1893:

"Cruelty to animals: How punished.—A person who overdrives, overloads, tortures or cruelly beats or unjustifiably injures, maims, mutilates or kills any animal, whether belonging to himself or another, or deprives any animal of necessary sustenance, food or drink, or causes any of the above things; or who wilfully sets on foot, instigates, engages in, or in any way furthers any act of cruelty to any animal or who having in custody a maimed, diseased, disabled or injured animal and abandoned such animal, or leaves such animal, or leaves it to die in a public street, road or public place, or who shall carry or cause to be carried in or upon any vessel or vehicle or otherwise carry any animal in a cruel or inhuman manner, or so as to produce torture, shall be fined not more than $30 for each offense. Be it further enacted, That the provisions of this act may be enforced by any justice of the peace, in cities, towns or counties where the offense is committed, or the offender may be found, and every such offender shall have the right of appeal to the corporation court in cities and counties, or to the circuit court in the case of an appeal from the justice of the peace."

The public is respectfully requested to report any violation of the above law to the undersigned for prosecution.
DI. H. HANSEN, Secretary of Roanoke Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.
